

The Fruitières de Nyon

Fruitières de Nyon and Vermeilley are two well-known destinations of the region of Saint-Cergue. The first one because of the view that one enjoys from this place is unmatched. The second one, because it is possible to have a little snack in a place that is abroad from crowded places.

Here, I suggest passing by these two places. We will enjoy the view onto Mont Blanc and Lake Geneva while going along the path that climbs to Cabane Rochefort from the Fruitières de Nyon. From this place, we will cross into a vale that does not provide a view onto the basin of Geneva, but that is magnificent. The Vermeilley will be no longer far.

Instead of following the pedestrian route that leads to Givrine, we will go off the beaten tracks to pass by below the Cabane du Carroz.
